

PRIVACY AND REFUND POLICY

The Authority is committed to ensuring the privacy, confidentiality, and security of its website visitors, customers and business partners. The following describes our information collection practices and explains how we use and protect your personal information. This statement applies only to information collected by this website.

Credit Card Information

To ensure your credit card information is secure and electronic payments are processed safely and efficiently, we only accept credit card data on a secured site to protect your information.

Personally Identifiable Information

All personal information collected through our online system is securely stored and protected to the extent allowed by law. This website may transfer such information to third parties to the extent necessary to authorize and facilitate third-party work such as the processing of credit card transactions. It may be necessary, if required by law or if pertinent to judicial or governmental investigations, to release your personally identifiable information.

Refund Policy

In the event that you were either charged in error or made a payment in error, we may honor your request to cancel such transaction, as long as the request is made within ninety days of the original transaction.
